NEWS

Rotherham Foodbank. Please continue to give to our Foodbank collection point at All Saints which is situated in the church porch. Donations of food will be taken on a regular basis, to the main Foodbank in Rotherham which is next to Hope Church. This Foodbank feeds over 200 people per week and your contributions will make a big difference to the lives of many people. Please give generously. Thank you

All Souls Memorial Service. All are welcome to join us at this service at 3.30pm next Sunday, when we pray by name and light a candle for those who have died over the past year, and whose funerals have been held at All Saints, and for others whom we want to remember. There is a list at the back if you would like to add the name of a loved one.

Newsletter and Magazine. Would you like to receive this newsletter on a weekly basis via email? If so, please contact Hazel on office@allsaintsaston.com

Similarly, if you would like to receive our monthly parish magazine electronically, please contact Hazel.

Christmas is Coming! Our annual Christmas fayre will be on Saturday 24th November between 1pm and 4pm. Please pop this date in your diary now. If you would like a stall at the event, please speak to Val Dixon in the first instance Aston All Saints School PTA funding bid. Aston All Saints Church School has submitted a request for community funding from Aviva to improve our outdoor space and we have been accepted!

The next stage is to get as many votes as possible, we would really appreciate it if you would take the time to look at our project and vote for us, you have 10 votes to use as you wish these can be used for one project or split across a number of projects. You do not need to be an Aviva customer to vote you will just need to register beforehand. Some projects receive thousands of votes so we need as many votes as possible to be in with a chance of making it through to the next stage.

Here is the link: <https://community-fund.aviva.co.uk/voting/project/view/4-2932> Thank you so much!

Rota of Readers. If you would like to be included on the rota of Bible readers, please contact Terry Nougher-Fuller. We could do with more readers at Evensong, please let Terry know if you can help with this.

11th November – Remembrance Day

The Collect

God, our refuge and strength,
bring near the day when wars shall cease
and poverty and pain shall end, that earth may know the peace of heaven
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

The First Reading: Revelation 21: 1 – 5a

Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "See, the home of God is among mortals. He will dwell with them; they will be his peoples, and God himself will be with them; he will wipe every tear from their eyes. Death will be no more; mourning and crying and pain will be no more, for the first things have passed away."

And the one who was seated on the throne said, "See, I am making all things new."

The Gospel Reading: John 14: 23 - 29

Jesus answered him, "Those who love me will keep my word, and my Father will love them, and we will come to them and make our home with them. Whoever does not love me does not keep my words; and the word that you hear is not mine, but is from the Father who sent me. "I have said these things to you while I am still with you. But the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything, and remind you of all that I have said to you. Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled, and do not let them be afraid. You heard me say to you, 'I am going away, and I am coming to you.' If you loved me, you would rejoice that I am going to the Father, because the Father is greater than I. And now I have told you this before it occurs, so that when it does occur, you may believe.
