SERVICES DURING MARCH 2021

The church remains open for services during the current lockdown, subject to all necessary social distancing measures, the use of hand sanitizers, and the wearing of masks, unless you have an approved exemption for health reasons.

This is in line with Church of England and government guidelines and is subject to constant revision. A copy of the latest risk assessment is on display at the back of church.

WEDNESDAY MORNING SERVICES

Said Services will be held in Church at 9.30am on Wednesday mornings and will hopefully be mostly Communion Services.

The Church will remain open after the Service for private prayer.

SUNDAY MORNING SERVICES

A Service with pre-recorded music will be held in Church at 9.30am each Sunday and will be mostly Sunday Morning Worship with occasional Communion services should Priests become available.

Social Distancing means that we can only accommodate 25 attendees in the Pews and these places will be prioritised for the half of our congregation who cannot use Zoom and have been excluded during Lockdown. All Protocols issued by the Diocese for enabling services in Church will be observed.

Each Sunday Service will be followed by a ZOOM Service at 11.00am for the foreseeable future until Social Distancing allows a full return with music and singing is allowed in Church again.

ACCESS TO THE CHURCH

Please remember that until further notice, no-one is to enter the church without the prior permission of one of the churchwardens.

For access at anytime please contact:

ON HOW TO DEFLECT THOSE STAFF APPRAISALS

St James the Least of All

My dear Nephew Darren.

So, your vicar has introduced staff appraisal for all the officers who work for your church, including yourself. It seems a very dangerous innovation; as far as I am concerned, ministry is only successful when parishioners have no idea what the clergy get up to.

I imagine that he will look at the number of services you take in a year. Funerals can only be increased if you resort to murder, which is likely to be frowned on – although I have been sorely tempted during endless church council meetings. Perhaps if you take a flask of water wherever you go and if you find a baby unattended, you could resort to a spontaneous baptism. That would get your numbers up, even if returning mothers may marvel at the highly localised and brief shower that seemed to have taken place over the pram.

Visiting targets are easily increased. Compile a list of when parishioners will be out and call on those days; a card through their letterbox will prove to your vicar that you were there. Should they happen to be in, mention that you are collecting for the organ fund and they will immediately excuse themselves for an important appointment. You are then free to move on to clock another visit.

Your vicar is also bound to want to see the congregation increasing. This is not sustainable, and you should put a stop to such ambitions at once. It is easily done. All you have to do is to approach your friends at the local football club and bribe them with your homemade beer to come along to church several Sunday mornings in a row. If you give them enough beer BEFORE the service, they will be likely to make just enough muted disruption as to leave your vicar a bit rattled, and thinking that perhaps after all, ‘less’ is ‘more’ when it comes to the congregation.

But whatever you do, make sure that you never preach a better sermon than he does. You don’t want anyone thanking you at the door for your ‘so interesting sermon’ in front of him, when they have been sleeping through his sermons for years. If you offend the vicar this way, he will take swift revenge, and ask you to organise the parish summer fete.

Your loving uncle,

Eustace

Whilst researching in the Sheffield Independent Newspapers, I found the following in a column called “Rotherham Gossip by Cyril Bewley”. He was obviously a reporter with a sense of humour and here is his tongue-in-cheek article in the Sheffield Independent Friday 19th July 1935.

HALF A BRIDGE IS BETTER THAN NO BRIDGE AT ALL

A little footbridge has won local government preferment for the tiny parish of Ulley. Since Christmas the footbridge, half in the parish of Whiston and half in Ulley, has been broken down, and in spite of 100 years of local government it could not be repaired. Whiston having the powers of a Parish Council would certainly keep their half of the bridge in good repair, but Ulley, with but the restricted powers of a Parish Meeting, could not pay for the repair of their half of the bridge.

So last March the good people of Ulley assembled under the chairmanship of Mr. William Pritchard, at their Parish Meeting, and decided to ask the County Council to bestow upon them the powers of a Parish Council in order that the footbridge could be repaired. The County Council have now agreed that Ulley shall have a Parish Council of five councillors, and when the county authorities order the first election, I shall expect Ulley to celebrate the preferment in true Ulley fashion.

The village is only 93¼ acres in extent and its population is not more than 200. But they know how to celebrate. Take Jubilee day. After celebrating all day in the open air somebody had the bright idea of having a dance in the school, so it was unlocked and the jollifications were kept up until 3 a.m. They hadn't finished even then, for later in the morning they all turned out again and made another day of it.

The celebration cost £21, and you will appreciate how much this is in Ulley when I tell you that a penny rate only produces £4. I doubt if the biggest town in the country spent a 5d. rate on the King's Jubilee. Nor did Ulley.

Somebody did suggest spending a 2d rate, which would have produced £3. But Mr. Arthur Worthington, mine host of the Royal Oak, where these things are talked over, suggested voluntary subscriptions would produce more, and that Ulley could ill afford a 2d rate. And thus they raised a little more than the celebrations cost.

One of the charms of these village celebrations is that the outside world hears little of them. Ulley is off the main road, and a mile from a bus route. You walk to it through deep lanes, reminiscent of Devonshire. And here's a tip if you want a jolly day out in the country. The villagers are holding weekly whist drives at the moment. Eight or ten tables are occupied every week. They are raising funds for a field day on Saturday 24th August. If you want some wholesome fun, bear the date in mind.

ULLEY VLLAGE SCHOOL 1947

MUCH ADO ABOUT ULLEY - TEN PUPILS, £400 PER HEAD

Ulley Primary School has been the subject of heated controversy among Yorkshire Educationalists and Ratepayers. It must be one of the smallest in the country with 10 children, all very young, and 1 teacher as the total Compliment.

Last Year Rother Valley Divisional Educational Executive Committee recommended the closing of the school. The County Council, as the senior body decided to keep it open as a one-class school. But when Rotherham Rural District Council's discussed the plan for modernising the school at a cost of nearly £ 4,000, it was agreed to urge instead that the school be closed.

ASTON-CUM-AUGHTON HISTORY GROUP is currently not meeting in view of the Coronavirus Pandemic. However, Heritage Open Days has been planned to take place between the 10th and 19th September 2021. Hopefully we will be able to take part this year.

A Plea to the Community of All Saints Church

A warm welcome awaits you whenever you wish to visit our beautiful Grade 1 listed 12th Century Church. Here at All Saints Church Aston we have Services every Sunday and during the week for those people who wish to extend their faith, or cannot make our Sunday Services.

We welcome the residents of our Community. Many of our children visit and play under supervision at our various organised groups. Many of these groups and services are highlighted in this Monthly Parish Magazine.

Our church is run by the Parochial Church Council of All Saints Aston, which comprises elected members of the Congregation, Clergy and Licensed Lay members. The PCC meets every month to discuss our finances and how our money should be spent to benefit and improve our church.

These meetings cover matters from the day to day running of our church, to the safety of every person who enters our church, and the ongoing repairs and maintenance needed to ensure our church is fit for purpose.

We receive many wonderful testaments from visitors who visit our church; from those who have been to a Service, a Wedding, a Baptism, a Funeral or just decided to look around our Church when in the area or staying at Aston Hall Hotel.

Like many other organizations, our Church continues to have challenges to maintain the fabric of the building and the requirements for our Church and Community's future.

We are grateful to members of our congregation and friends who donate to assist in all that we try to do in the development and the continuing pathway work of our Church. These donations are made by a monthly bank direct debit, a weekly envelope scheme or by cash in the collection tray. All monies are used to help in the running of our church.

We hope you too would like to consider becoming part of the continuation of our work and the future of our Church by donating whatever you feel you can afford. Being a charity, if you are a tax payer each £1.00 donation you give attracts 25p from the government, which as you can understand is of great help to us.

If you would like further information on how you can help by making a monthly bank direct debit donation, by weekly envelope contribution, or a one off donation to our church we would be very grateful for you to contact our Gift Aid Secretary or our Admin Assistant.

ALL SAINTS ASTON NOTICEBOARD

HYMNS & ANTHEMS

Many of you will know that Ian Watts produced a CD of the church choir performing Christmas carols. These were all recorded in isolation and then mixed and produced by Ian into a rather lovely CD. Together with the Choir he has now produced a collection of Hymns and Anthems Volume 1 which is available to buy on CD for £10.00 each with free local delivery, or £1.15 for postage and packing.

To purchase your copy please contact Chris Ward 07949 186202 or E-Mail charlottedarling@live.co.uk

We are very grateful to all members of the choir for giving their time and voices, to Carl Spencer for arranging physical production, to Charlotte Darling for managing the sales, and of course to Ian Watts for co-ordinating the whole thing.

The church choir is still recruiting for new members. We have vacancies in all voice parts, but especially basses and altos. If you or anyone you know might be interested please contact Chris Ward 07949 186202 or Ian Watts, Director of Music 07950 753429.

REGULAR GIVING

A commitment to regular giving is seen by many as a sign of their faith and commitment to God.

We thank all who give regularly to the church and would welcome new givers to join either our regular giving envelope scheme, or to set up a standing order direct to the church's bank account.

Please contact Glyn Sands on 07835 240870 for more details. Thank you.

NOTTINGHAM & DISTRICT ORGAN SOCIETY

We thank Nottingham & District Society of Organists for their kind Donation of £50.00 for use of 5 of the Christmas Choir videos at their meeting.

14 March 2021 : Mothering Sunday - 4th Sunday in Lent

There is an old Jewish saying:

God could not be everywhere, and therefore He made mothers.

Mother Church, Mother Earth, Mother of the Gods - our human mothers - all of them have been part of the celebration of 'Mothering Sunday' - as the fourth Sunday in Lent is affectionately known. It has been celebrated in the UK since at least the 16th century.

In Roman times, great festivals were held every Spring to honour Cybele, Mother of all the Gods. Other pagan festivals in honour of Mother Earth were also celebrated. With the arrival of Christianity, the festival became one honouring Mother Church. During the Middle Ages, young people apprenticed to craftsmen or working as 'live-in' servants were allowed only one holiday a year on which to visit their families, which is how 'Mothering Sunday' got its name. This special day became a day of family rejoicing, and the Lenten fast was broken. In some places the day was called Simnel Day, because of the sweet cakes called simnel cakes traditionally eaten on that day.

In recent years the holiday has changed, and in many ways now resembles the American Mother's Day, with families going out to Sunday lunch and generally making a fuss of their mother on the day. The Fourth Sunday in Lent was called 'Mid-Lent' or 'Refreshment Sunday', when the rigors of Lent were relaxed more than was normal for a feast day. It is called Mothering Sunday as a reference to the Epistle reading for the Day (Galatians 4:21-31). The Lenten Epistles follow from each other with teaching about our life as Christians and how we are to follow Christ. On Mid-Lent Sunday the Epistle talks of bondage and freedom; the bondage of the Law and the Old Covenant as compared to the freedom in Christ, "the promised one", and the New Covenant. Verse 26 reads "But Jerusalem which is above is free, which is the mother of us all." We gain our freedom from Christ and, as it was seen before the Reformation, the Church.

Thus, Mothering Sunday is about the freedom that we gain through the promise of Jesus Christ delivered through our Mother the Church. People were encouraged to go to their 'Mother Church' (their home church or their home Cathedral) to worship and give thanks. Hence apprentices, and others, went home for the weekend and often brought gifts (or accumulated pay) home to their family.

On the other hand, Mother's Day is a secular festival invented in 1904 and is celebrated on the 2nd Sunday in May in most countries in the world. The UK seems to be the exception. In recent years Mothering Sunday has been hijacked to take the place of a special, secular day to give thanks for our mothers.

Bluebells

I remember rediscovering my mother's little hard back book of, beautifully painted, watercolours by the artist Cicely Mary Barker (1895-1973) 'Flower Fairies of the Spring'. It included 'the bluebell fairy' proudly carrying a stem of bluebells like a royal mace in a state procession. Most people, of a certain age at least, can remember the book. The pictures were originally used on postcards and clearly caught the imagination. But although Emily Bronte poetically said 'The Bluebell is the sweetest flower' it also had a warlike use. Its sticky sap helped glue the flight feathers onto arrows. So they were an unsung hero of Agincourt.

The poem in Flower Fairies called the bluebell 'The peerless Woodland King' although its reference to children gathering 'armfuls' could not be written now. It is unlawful to intentionally pick, uproot or destroy wild bluebells. Local bluebell woods, with their lovely, uplifting, dappled spring light; include Anston Stones, the walk on the east of Treeton Dyke and the woods above Chesterfield Canal at Kiveton Park. Further afield, the woodland walks at Bolton Abbey in North Yorkshire have great drifts of Bluebells. Stick to the paths though as treading on bluebells easily crushes the leaves meaning they can no longer photosynthesise and starve.

Up to half of the world's bluebells grow in the British Isles. You can plant your own. They are easy to establish and grow well in gardens and outdoor pots. When planted as bulbs they spread quickly. Seeds take longer. They are happiest in shade and flower in April-May. They attract bees as an early source of nectar. When choosing bulbs do check they are English 'common bluebells' and not the, potentially invasive, Spanish variety. You will also want to check they are sourced and grown in Britain. Otherwise, there is a higher risk of introducing pests and diseases. We don't want to lose our Bluebells. Native bluebells (Hyacinthoides non-scripta) are a vivid violet/purply blue and the stems arch with the flowers on one side. The Spanish variety has flowers arranged around the stem and unlike the common bluebell they have no scent.

The only place you will not find our common bluebell in the British Isles is Orkney and Shetland. Maybe they are making a point about being 'almost Scandinavians'? Common bluebells are also native to Ireland, parts of northern Spain and Portugal, Belgium and have become naturalised in Germany, Italy and Romania. So you might spot them on your travels. As practical tips, especially in dry areas under trees and in pots, bluebells still like some moisture even when dormant. Plant them in little clumps with uneven spacing to create the 'drift' effect seen in woodland. Don't remove the leaves and stem after flowering because they continue to feed the bulbs. You can lift and divide bulbs after flowering to help them spread but it happens gradually anyway. Happy planting!

Thoughts

'Tis God's will I would do,
My own will I would rein;
Would give to God his due,
From my own due refrain;
God's path I would pursue,
My own path would disdain;

For Christ's death would I care,
My own death duly weighed;
Christ's pain my silent prayer,
My God-love warmer made;
'Tis Christ's cross I would bear,
My own cross off me laid;

Repentance I would make,
Repentance early choose;
Rein for my tongue would take,
Rein for my thoughts would use;

God's judgment would I mind,
My own judgment close-scanned;
Christ's freedom seizing bind,
My own freedom in hand;
Christ's love close-scanned would find,
My own love understand.

Written in March

The cock is crowing,
The stream is flowing,
The small birds twitter,
The lake doth glitter,
The green field sleeps in the sun...

There's joy in the mountains,
There's life in the fountains,
Small clouds are sailing,
Blue sky prevailing,
The rain is over and gone.

From a poem by William Wordsworth
