On why Clergy should avoid computers

The Rectory
St James the Least of All

My dear Nephew Darren,

Thank you for the kind offer of your old computer, but I do not want it. I know you find it a fundamental basic of daily life, but I do not, and I intend to keep things that way.

This is despite the fact that our diocesan office now takes it for granted that all of us clergy have a computer. Indeed, the diocesan secretary and I have had several awkward phone calls upon this very subject. He can't believe that I really don't have one, and suspects that I am simply hiding my email address from him so that he cannot send me the daily diocesan briefings, weekly questionnaires, and constant notification of all sorts of meetings and training days. But I remain firm: I have survived in ministry for nearly 50 years without a computer, and I don't intend to change now. When he gets tetchy with me, I take the high moral ground and remind him that St Paul did not have a computer.

Besides, it would not end with just a computer. Next, I would be obliged to get a printer and then ink cartridges and then maybe some sort of virus would attack me. As I have no idea about any of this, I might have to allow someone into the vicarage to sort it out, and even worse, I might even have to pay them. My money can be far more usefully spent on good claret.

Being without a computer also saves me much aggravation. From what I can gather, most computer owners spend significant parts of their lives either trying to get their machine to do something that it refuses to do, or else getting help from someone in a remote part of the world who speaks a jargon only distantly related to English, who assures you that whatever you did, it would have been better if you hadn't.

So I have decided that should I ever REALLY need to use a computer for something, I will visit our local primary school and get a six year-old to do the job for me, which they do with effortless efficiency, speed and accuracy.

Your loving uncle,

Eustace

THE DIFFERENCE

So often
I can't wear the right clothes,
Speak the right words,
Fit the right mould,
Be the shape people want
me to be,
Expect me to be,
Demand that I am,
To conform.

But you Lord
Accept me,
Release me,
Make it possible to be me,
Perfectly free
In Your service,
Open for You
To transform.

ALL SAINTS ASTON NOTICEBOARD

At its June meeting, PCC confirmed that the time of the Sunday morning service in church will revert to 10:00am with effect from Sunday 27 June. Regular weekly Zoom services will cease from that date, although there will be periodic services on Zoom, some of them streamed from church. Details will be provided in plenty of time before these events.

- * The services of Holy Communion and Compline on 27 June will both be on Zoom.
- * The Wednesday morning service in church remains at 09:30am.

REGULAR GIVING

A commitment to regular giving is seen by many as a sign of their faith and commitment to God. We thank all who give regularly to the church and would welcome new givers to join either our regular giving envelope scheme, or to set up a standing order direct to the church's bank account.

HYMNS & ANTHEMS

Many of you will know that Ian Watts produced a CD of our church choir performing Christmas carols. These were recorded in isolation and then mixed and produced by Ian into a rather lovely CD. Together with the Choir he has now produced a collection of Hymns and Anthems Volume 1 which is available to buy on CD for £10.00 each with free local delivery, or £1.15 for postage and packing.

To purchase your copy please contact Chris Ward 07949 186202, or E-Mail charlottedarling@live.co.uk

We are very grateful to all members of the choir for giving their time and voices, to Carl Spencer for arranging physical production, to Charlotte Darling for managing the sales, and of course to Ian Watts for co-ordinating the whole thing.

Although in Lockdown, the church choir is still recruiting for new members. We have vacancies in all voice parts, but especially basses and altos. If you or anyone you know might be interested please contact Chris Ward 07949 186202.

A Plea to the Community of All Saints Church

A warm welcome awaits you whenever you wish to visit our beautiful Grade 1 listed 12th Century Church. Here at All Saints Church Aston we have Services every Sunday and during the week for those people who wish to extend their faith, or cannot make our Sunday Services.

We welcome the residents of our Community. Many of our children visit and play under supervision at our various organised groups. Many of these groups and services are highlighted in this Monthly Parish Magazine.

Our church is run by the Parochial Church Council of All Saints Aston, which comprises elected members of the Congregation, Clergy and Licensed Lay members. The PCC meets every month to discuss our finances and how our money should be spent to benefit and improve our church.

These meetings cover matters from the day to day running of our church, to the safety of every person who enters our church, and the ongoing repairs and maintenance needed to ensure our church is fit for purpose.

We receive many wonderful testaments from visitors who visit our church; from those who have been to a Service, a Wedding, a Baptism, a Funeral or just decided to look around our Church when in the area or staying at Aston Hall Hotel.

Like many other organizations, our Church continues to have challenges to maintain the fabric of the building and the requirements for our Church and Community's future.

We are grateful to members of our congregation and friends who donate to assist in all that we try to do in the development and the continuing pathway work of our Church. These donations are made by a monthly bank direct debit, a weekly envelope scheme or by cash in the collection tray. All monies are used to help in the running of our church.

We hope you too would like to consider becoming part of the continuation of our work and the future of our Church by donating whatever you feel you can afford. Being a charity, if you are a tax payer each £1.00 donation you give attracts 25p from the government, which as you can understand is of great help to us.

If you would like further information on how you can help by making a monthly bank direct debit donation, by weekly envelope contribution, or a one off donation to our church we would be very grateful for you to contact our Gift Aid Secretary or our Admin Assistant.

Contact details as follows:

About 700AD the people of Aston embraced Christianity and built a church: probably of wattle and wood. After the Norman Conquest in 1066 the Norman Lord erected a Hall and rebuilt the Church in Stone.

our Church will continue into the future

Aston and Aughton in the Deanery of Handsworth. Part 2.

Cottages at Aston Netherthorpe

The book “The History of the Parishes and Churches in the Deanery of Handsworth in the Diocese and Archdeaconry of Sheffield”, written by the Rev. Alfred Thomas, B.D., Rector of Todwick (published in 1932) is a mine of information about the villages in this area. This article follows on from part 1 in the last issue.

Rev Thomas describes what he calls the Hamlets of Aston, as follows.

Aughton

Originally it was a separate manor from that of Aston, held in the time of Domesday by Lepsi, lord of Aston, Grim and Lefchil. The next historical connection with Aston is a deed by which Thomas de Auneby, Lord of Aston, conveyed land in the town of Aughton to Matthew Brecario, shepherd, to hold of the chief lord of the fee without any manner of suits, services or demands for ever. These lands afterwards came to the family of West who had a considerable estate and resided there until the latter end of the reign of Elizabeth I. Sir William West was a soldier in the army of Henry VIII. He had in reward of his services, grants of Abbey lands. His mother was Jane, daughter of Richard Symms of Wales, and his son, Lewis West, lived in Wales before he was slain, in the prime of his life, by the two sons of Lord Darcy in 1556. Another branch of the family resided at Firbeck Hall.

Hardwick

In ancient deeds this is sometimes called a Manor, but it was not organised as such, with its lord, courts and free tenants. It was at one time the estate of one William le Marshall who in 1289 gave to Sir Hardolf Gasteneys or Wasteneys Knight, and to Sybil his wife all his lands of Aston and Tatewick (Todwick). Witnesses, Sir Edmund de Gasteneys, Knight, William son of Gregory de Tatewick and others. This property was afterwards the inheritance of the family of Wortley, a younger branch of the Wortleys of Wortley, near Sheffield. It then became united with the Manor of Aston, and eventually was sold by the last Earl of Holderness to Mr. William Fox, of Todwick in 1777.

Canonthorpe

This is an interesting instance of an ancient hamlet which has now disappeared. Robert de Eston gave it and the Chapel of St. Giles to the Canons of Nostel. In 1231 Sir William Rumneys leased it for one mark annual rent, and the maintenance of a priest to perform divine service in the Chapel thrice every week. It was situated between Aston and Beighton and, later, called “Fawkeners, otherwise Canonthorpe”. The Chapel is not mentioned in the King’s Valor or any other known list of religious houses in Yorkshire.

Netherthorpe

Aston, like many another parish, has its Netherthorpe, or lower village.

Swallownest

is a populous village and contains the Fever Isolation Hospital for a wide district, and the principal post office of the parish.

All Saints Church, Aston.

The book also describes the building and contents of All Saints Church, Aston. It mentions the galleries that were erected to provide extra seating.

1719 - “A Licence was obtained from the Bishop’s Court at York to put up a loft in the West end of the Church”. The seats in it were sold on the 19th March, 1719-20.

12th April 1753 - “A Licence was granted to erect or build a Loft or Gallery against the West end or wall of the South Aisle, to adjoin on the North to a Loft or Gallery heretofore erected at the West end of the Middle Aisle”. There was a West end gallery and a barrel organ in the Church in 1860.

8th November 1777 - A licence to take away the old seats and newpew the Church of Aston and to newpave the floor of the Church.

23rd January 1781 - A commission to allot the seats and pews in the Church of Aston.

Aston is fortunate in possessing its pre-reformation altar stone, and a very fine one. It is remarkable for its thickness and superior finish. It is regrettably cracked across the middle and Crosses have been nearly cut out, but their position and outlines still bear their testimony to the genuineness of the slab, the length of which is 6 ft. 11¾”, breadth 2 ft. 4¾”, thickness 8½”. It is, at present, in the Vestry. When parochial funds are available, it is proposed to restore it to its proper place, and to make other improvements and repairs in the Church.

There are three bells in the tower. Nos. 1 and 2 are inscribed: Walker & Hilton 1784. The third is inscribed “W. Mason, Rector, I. Kesteven, I. Whitehead (Churchwardens): Walker and Hilton”. Walker and Hilton had their Bell Foundry at Wath-upon-Dearne. In 1783 it moved to Rotherham, where “peals of all sizes and weights, properly tuned, as well as single bells may be had on the shortest notice. Any Orders we may be favoured with, will be punctually and speedily executed on the lowest terms, by Walker and Hilton, who will also complete the frames and hang them if required.”

Aughton Mission Room

This room was built about 1860, with the object of providing a Mission to the people of the hamlet. For a time it was used as a relief school to the Aston School. The site was originally held on a lease from Mrs. Morton. When the lease terminated, the site was acquired for the church by the present Rector, the Revd. W. H. Brooke. The building is used for regular Sunday Services and Sunday School, in charge of a lay reader.

The Church Hall

This is a commodious hall, situated in Swallownest, and built in 1920, at a cost of more than £3,000. It provides accommodation for the social organisations of the parish. Special services and a Sunday School are held in it. The site has been conveyed to the Diocesan Trust and Board of Finance.

3rd July - St Thomas the Apostle, confused and doubting

Thomas, one of Jesus' 12 apostles, was an impulsive, confused, honest sceptic. Jesus could understand and work with such a man. Thomas' impulsiveness was evident when Jesus prepared to visit Lazarus in Bethany. It was a dangerous trip to make, because of the Jews, but Thomas urged his fellow disciples: "Let us also go, that we may die with Him." (John 11:16) Instead, Jesus brought Lazarus back to life. Thomas' confusion is shown in later talks with Jesus. He was not really sure where Jesus was going long-term (John 14:5). But Jesus accepted this confused commitment, and began to untangle it, patiently explaining: "I am going to my Father", and "No one comes unto the Father but by me."

Finally, Thomas' honest scepticism is revealed after the Resurrection, which he flatly refused to believe – unless he could touch the wounds of the risen Jesus. Sure enough, Jesus appears – but instead of scolding him, shows him the wounds. Thomas responds: "My Lord and my God" (John 20:26ff).

Thus, Doubting Thomas' honest doubts, turned to honest faith, have become a reassurance for thousands of men and women across the centuries who also want to follow Jesus, but who require some proof of this amazing event – the Resurrection. In Doubting Thomas' complete affirmation of faith, after meeting the risen, crucified Christ, they can find support for their own faith.

Ancient legends tell how Thomas went on to India as a missionary. There are rumours that Thomas even built a palace for a king's daughter in India, and thus he is the patron saint of architects. It is believed that he was martyred by a spear on 3rd July, 72AD in Mylapore, near Madras. 46 ancient churches in England were dedicated to him.

Boarding Houses and Brisk Winds

Wherever you went on holiday in the 1960's and early 1970s be it Whitby, with its booming, grumbling fog-horn to semi-tropical Torquay with its, especially hardy, palm trees, boarding houses were the place to stay for working people and their families.

They were often owned by widows who had retired to the seaside to generate an income. Some were sainted hosts and cooks whilst others actively disliked guests and used mealtimes as a deterrent against unnecessary lingering.

The rooms had certain standard features: A bed with a built-in creak, a dressing table with a slightly cracked mirror, a stool with a loose leg, a chest of drawers (one of which always got stuck) and a narrow wardrobe. Nothing matched. The drawers smelled either of lavender or ancient talcum powder mixed with dust.

The 'Rules of the House', pinned up in your room, told you when there was hot water or how to pay for it by coins in a slot. They stated a precise breakfast time and that you must be 'out' by 10am daily and 'You may not return before 4pm'.

For lunch, your mother would create cheese baps in her bedroom. The obligatory sand would added later by a brisk northerly. If it was wet every holidaymaker would be found in a café staring out of steamed up windows. One particular café owner was referred to as 'a right Tartar' by my mother. Was he Russian? The diminutive me asked him on one visit. He frowned as did my mother.

A good landlady prepare something you asked for during your stay such as a bread-and-butter pudding on Sunday. Otherwise, you got what you were given – just like at home. At teatime 'English summer fayre' was always on the menu: A small glass of fruit juice, served on a plate, was followed by meat and potato pie, an overcooked joint of meat on Sunday or chops, all served with boiled to death vegetables. This was nicely rounded off by a steamed pudding. Exactly what you wanted on a hot day.

One room I shared in Blackpool was tiny and vaguely triangular. The door could only be opened half-way as the bed was at an angle. A sign above the window proclaimed it to be the 'Fire Escape'. A thick rope was attached to a metal tube bolted to the wall. In the unfortunate event presumably, you might open the window and climb down the rope. 'Might' – as the window was stuck and nobody with a 46 inch waist or above could get into the room.

The most magical thing for a small child was being given permission to sound the dinner gong at the foot of the stairs. That was fun. What a scuttling, rushing, bumping sound it generated in the rooms and corridors above. Fun? There were no 'screens' back then apart from boring stuff in black and white. Gongs and boarding houses made for good memories.

THANK YOU!

I am sure there will be many of you missing our weekly Parent and toddler group "Praise and Play". We hope to be able to re-open in September; Regulations permitting.

Sadly, our lovely Praise and Play leader Anne Moss, who many of you will know well has decided to step down from this role. She has certainly earned herself a rest after serving in this role for 16 years and attending as a Mum for 19 years!

We are so grateful for her loving service for all of these years.

If you are interested in taking over the leadership or helping with Praise and Play in the future please contact our Children's Minister Beth Henshaw at Beth@thehenshaws.net

Suitable levels of Safeguarding will be required.
